Introduction

All praise is due to Allah, Lord of the worlds. I testify that there is no God worthy of worship except for Allah and that Mohammed (peace and blessings upon him) is the final messenger of Allah.

This book is to learn Quran reading in the reading style

Hafs an Asim (By the way of Ash-Shatibiyah)

حَفْصٌ عَنْ عَاصِمٍ عَنِ طَرِيقِ الشَّاطِبِيَّةِ which is often only called “Hafs”. The writing is like in the Medina edition. This Reading-Style and this print are the most common worldwide and the most common for non-Arabs to learn.

There are several common books to learn the reading of the noble Quran. Despite this, we at Abrar have decided to make a new one. The reasons for this are the following:

- Many of those books are completely in Arabic. This makes it difficult for the foreign reader to navigate through the book and even more difficult to understand the explanation of the rules. The reader often does not even know what the reading text is or what the explanation is.
- Many of the common Qaida books have mistakes or are in illogical order.
- The writing of many common Qaida books is not the writing of the Medina edition of the Quran Book (Mushaf). This makes it difficult for the student to switch from the Qaida to the Quran.
- The use of such books is often not free. This is why we make this book free of charge, and the PDF may be used and shared freely. For those who like to have printed books, we plan to have printed copies for sale in sha Allah, so keep an eye out for those. You can print the book out for yourself or for your students if you wish.

For the student: You should take care not to write English letters in the book in order to speed up the reading and remember the pronunciation. Years of experience as teachers have shown us that students who do this are not making progress in reading and need twice as long as others to practise the same content.

For the teacher: If you find mistakes in this book while working with it, we are more than happy to hear about your suggestions and corrections. We will, in sha Allah, regularly update this book and work with your constructive feedback. Please message your suggestions/corrections to info@abrarlearning.com.

Even if this book has English explanations, those are only meant to help, and it is still necessary to read this book with a qualified teacher.

May Allah, the Almighty, accept from us and from all Readers and Teachers. May this book be useful for many generations of Muslims. May He, Exalted is He, reunite us in His highest paradise and forgive our sins, mistakes and shortcomings.

[1] This transcription into the Latin alphabet is taken from the DIN-Norm of DMG (Deutsche Morgenländische Gesellschaft 1935), adopted by the International Convention of Orientalist Scholars in Rome (find in brackets common popular transcription forms)
[2] The first letter of the Alphabet is either Alif or Hamza. Alif itself has no pronunciation and is only used to prolong letters.

The Letters of the Arabic Alphabet with Arabic Names

Letters in blue are read heavily by raising the backside of the tongue to the roof of the mouth.

* Letter ر is special. It is mostly a heavy letter but sometimes it is read lightly. We will learn these exceptions as we proceed through the book in sha Allah.

The letters in mixed order

Say the names of the letters:

ق	ث	ع	ب	غ	ض	ذ	ط	1
ن	س	ف	ش	ك	د	ل	ص	و
ه	ج	ء	ظ	ا	ى	ف	ت	غ

ن	ر	ف	ط	ق	ع	ت	ح	ى
ط	م	ص	غ	ف	ن	د	ص	ذ

Tip: Practise at home by writing letters on cards, mixing them and reading them aloud!

Exercise or Homework Page

Exercise 1: Write the letters of the Alphabet:

ج	غ
ح	ف
خ	ق
د	ك
ذ	ل
ر	م
ز	ن
س	ه
ش	و

The forms of the letters

The Arabic letters are written in different forms, depending on whether they stand at the beginning, in the middle, or at the end of the word or if they stand alone. So each letter has four different forms. We already learned the form of the letter standing alone. Here is how they look in other positions of the word.

Take care! Letters in purple do not connect with the next letter! In the middle of the word, they look like they do at the end of the word. The first letter, Hamza is very special. When standing on its own, it doesn't connect to any side.

Which ones do not connect? Colour the fields with the non-connecting letters!

The Numbers

The Arabic Numbers are 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 0

However, in the Quran Mushaf it is common to find the Indian Numbers: ١ ٢ ٣ ٤ ٥ ٦ ٧ ٨ ٩ ٠
This is why we need to study them in order to read the Page- and Ayah-Numbers in the Quran.

0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	50	114	365
٠	١	٢	٣	٤	٥	٦	٧	٨	٩	١٠	٥٠	١١٤	٣٦٥

Exercise 3: Write the Indian Numbers to practise them:

_____ ٠
_____ ١
_____ ٢
_____ ٣
_____ ٤
_____ ٥
_____ ٦
_____ ٧
_____ ٨
_____ ٩

Read the Numbers:

٥٨٩	٤٣٢	١٢	٨٨٧	١٦٠	٩٧١	٢٠٢٠	١٤٦٣	٢٧٠
٥٧٠	١٢٣	٤٠٦	٧٦٤	٨٧٢	١٠٠٠	٢٩٤	٢٥	٧٥٤

Now play a game with your teacher:

Your teacher tells you the number of a Quran page. You find this page in an all-Arabic Mushaf (Quran print) and tell your teacher the first letter that is written on that page. How many can you get right?

Fatha

The Arabic language has 3 short vowels (Harakāt): Fatha (فتحة), Kasra (كسرة) and Dhamma (ضمة).

“Haraka” means “movement” because it shows how the lips are moved after the letter. Make sure you practise the movements correctly because it will make your recitation more correct and beautiful.

“Fatha” means “opening”. For the Fatha, you open your mouth wide. When the Fatha is written over the letter, it is pronounced with a short “a” at the end. This “a” is pronounced lightly (comparable to the word “hat”) if it is standing after a light letter and heavily (similar to the word “saw” in American English or the word “car” in British English) if it is following a heavy letter. Make sure that your tongue is relaxed and flat after the light letters and your tongue is raised to the roof of the mouth after the heavy letters.

Exercise 4: Explain in your own words what “Fatha” means:

Exercise 5: What is the translation of the Arabic word Harakah (حَرَكَة)? Why is it called Harakah?

To check your answers, you can look at page 15!

Exercise 6: Let us now write some Fatha words for one line each to practise the forms of the letters further. If you can, try to say them aloud as you write:

Tip: Practise the Fatha pages until you are fluent in reading them; only then continue to Kasra.

Kasra

Kasra (كسرة) is the second Haraka in the Arabic language. When it is written under a letter, it is pronounced like a short “i” after the letter, like in the word “bit”.

“Kasra” means “breaking”. For Kasra, you lower your jaw and raise the middle of the tongue. Kasra is not pronounced by “smiling”.

Dhamma

Dhamma (ضمة) is the third and last Haraka in the Arabic language. When it is written over a letter, it is pronounced like a short “oo” after the letter, like in the word “put” or “book”.

“Dhamma” means “rounding”. For Dhamma, you make your lips round like a circle. In the middle, you leave a round space which is big enough that your little pinkie finger would fit inside.

Sukoon

A letter may come without Haraka. In this case, it always has a Sukoon (no matter if Sukoon is written or not). If a letter has Sukoon, we call it a “sakin (silent) letter”. This means that this letter comes without a vowel. In handwriting, we write the Sukoon like a circle. Take care: The round circle in the Quran is not a Sukoon! On this page, you see how Sukoon is written in the Quran.

Keep in Mind: In High Arabic, we can never start reading with a Sukoon! This is why we will practise reading the Sukoon letters with a voweled letter in front.

أَثْ	أَتْ	---	أَءْ
أَخْ	أَحْ	---
أَزْ	أَرْ	أَذْ	---
أَضْ	أَصْ	أَشْ	أَسْ
أَغْ	أَعْ	أَظْ	---
أَلْ	أَكْ	---	أَفْ
أَىْ	أَهْ	أَوْ	أَنْ	أَمْ

The letters which are left out are read in a special way. We will practise them later on!

Be careful with the letter ض! When it is sakin, it is read in a special way too: With Istitala (lengthening) by trapping the air in the mouth with the tongue and then letting the air push the tongue slightly forward. Practise this with your teacher.
Letter ر is pronounced heavy when it is sakin AFTER a fatha!

Read the Letter-combinations and words with short vowels and Sukoon.

Qalqala

There are some letters which are pronounced in a special way when they are sakin. Because of their "Shidda" (strength/closure), they cannot be heard when we read them with a normal Sukoon. This is why we give them Qalqala: It's a bouncing sound of opening the Articulation point after closing it. We open the mouth and say a kind of undefined vowel after the letter without forming the lips in a certain shape. The Qalqala letters can be memorised by keeping this sentence in mind:

Qalqala Letters:

قُطْبُ جَدْ

(Be strong, Qutb)

أَقْ	أَطْ	أَبْ	أَجْ	أَدْ
إِقْرَأْ	أَطْعَمَهُمْ	صُبْحَ	أَجْرَ	لَقَدْ

Practise the Qalqala-Words:

عَدْنِ	أُقْسِمُ	أَحَدْ	فَقَطْ	لَهَبْ	عَبْدَ
أَجْرَمَ	أَبْصَرَ	سَبْعَ	صَدْرَكَ	حَسَدْ	مَقْرَبَ
سَنَدْعُ	تَجْزِى	تُعْجِبْكَ	تُصِبْكَ	صِدْقُ	قَبْلُ

Tip: Qalqala letters have Qalqala only when they are sakin (or when we stop on them – we will learn this later, in sha Allah)
If they are read with a haraka, we cannot hear any Qalqala!

Read the words with Sukoon and take care of which have Qalqala and which do not

Calligraphy-Connected Letters

Sometimes we still find letters which look unfamiliar to us.

This is because if a “hook-Letter” ب ـنـ پ ت ٹ meets a “wave-letter“ ج ح خ, they become connected and merge with each other for reasons of calligraphy. Also, some other letters merge, e.g. ل and م. Practise recognising them:

نَ + جَ	نَجَـ	نَ + جِ	نَجِـ
نَ + حَ	نَحَـ	بُ + حِ	بُحِـ
نَ + خَ	نَخَـ	تَ + خْ	تَخْـ
بَ + جَ	بَجَـ	ثَ + جُ	ثَجُـ
بَ + حَ	بَحَـ	بَ + یْ	بَیْ
تَ + جَ	تَجَـ	*بِ + هَ	بِهَ
ثَ + خَ	ثَخَـ	مَ + حْ	مَحْـ
یَ + جَ	یَجَـ	مَ + جْ	مَجْـ

* This is used only in other Quran scripts; therefore, the change of fonts.

Practise everything we learned so far by reading these words from the Quran

Madd Alif

We are going to start the chapter of Mudud now. Keep these words in Mind:

Madd (Lengthening)

Mudud (Lengthenings)

There are three lengthening Letters in the Arabic Language: Alif (ا), Ya (ي) and Waw (و). They prolong the three different Harakāt. Alif is used to prolong a Fatha. We say: Fatha is the daughter of Alif. Fatha and Alif fit together – If Alif is preceded by Fatha, we speak a long "a"– light after a light letter and heavy after a heavy letter! You read the following letters double as long as you would read a Letter with Fatha:

ثَا	تَا	بَا	ءَا
خَا	حَا	جَا
زَا	رَا	ذَا	دَا
ضَا	صَا	شَا	سَا
غَا	عَا	ظَا	طَا
لَا	كَا	قَا	فَا
يَا	هَا	وَا	نَا	مَا

When Alif comes after a Lam, they become the letter "Lam-Alif", so Alif is written diagonally into the Lam.

Practise reading the words with Madd Alif. Make sure you make it twice as long as a Haraka:

1	ءَامَنَ	بَابَ	تَابَ	مِثَالَ	جَاءَ
حَاطَ	يَـخَافُ	دَارُ	إِذَا	أَرَادَ	زَاحَفَ
فَسَادَ	شَابَهَ	صَابَرَ	ضَاءَ	طَابَقَ	ظَالَمَ
عَادُ	غَاصَ	فَاتَحَ	قَالَ	كَانَ	بِلَادِ
مَالَ	نَارُ	نَـهَارَ	وَادِ	لَيَالِ

2	طَارِقُ	أَكْوَابُ	ثَاقِبُ	عَالِيَةِ	حَافِظُ
قَارِعَةُ	ءَامَنَهُمْ	بَلَا	عَذَابُ	نَاسَ	سَمَاءُ
تَكَاثُرُ	مَا هِيَهْ	هَاوِيَةُ	رَاضِيَةِ	جِبَالُ	فَرَاشِ
مِثْقَالَ	أَخْبَارَهَا	أَوْلَادُ	أَثْقَالَهَا	زِلْزَالَهَا	مَقَابِـرَ

Baby Madd Alif

Alif Madd can also be written as a “Baby-Madd”. Then it is just read exactly like a normal Alif Madd. The reason why the scholars wrote it like this is that it was not written but spoken in the original word. So the scholars added it in order for us to know that it is spoken with Alif.

ثَـٰلِثُ	كِتَـٰبَ	بَـٰلِغَ	---	1
ذَٰلِكَ	---	خَـٰشِعَةٌ	حَـٰفِظُ	تِـجَـٰرَةَ

خَـٰلِدُ	بِلَـٰدِ	إِطْعَـٰمُ	يَـٰقَوْمِ	بَلَـٰغٌ	يَـٰحَسْرَةَ

Special ways to write Madd Alif

Sometimes Madd Alif is written like a “Ya” without dots. This is called “Alif Maksura”. It is spoken like a normal Alif Madd.

عَلَىٰ	أَبَىٰ	فَتَلَقَّىٰ	إِلَىٰ	سَلْوَىٰ

Sometimes a Baby Madd Alif is written over a “Ya” without dots or over a “Waw“. This shows that the original word was written with “Ya” or “Waw” but spoken with “Alif”. We follow the rule: When we find two letters on top of each other, we can always read the top letter! Just ignore the letter below and read a normal Madd Alif.

ءَاتَيْـهُمَا	تَغْشَىٰهَا	هُدَىٰ	وَتَرَبْـهُمْ
تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ	وَلِيَرْبِطَ عَلَىٰ	بُشْرَىٰ	وَعَلَىٰ

Exercise 16: In the first 4 Ayat of Surah Al-Qari'yah, there are 9 Madd-Alifs. Can you find and circle them all?

Exercise 17: Rewrite these words with a Madd-Alif after the purple letter(s), as in the example. Do not forget that the Alif does not connect. So every letter after it looks as if it would stand at the beginning.

Madd Ya

Ya (ي) is the second letter to prolong a Haraka. It is used to prolong the Kasra. – If Ya is preceded by a Kasra, we speak a long “ee”, again similar to the word “bee”! You read the following letters double as long as a Letter with Kasra:

ثِي	تِي	بِي	ءِي
خِي	حِي	جِي
زِي	رِي	ذِي	دِي
ضِي	صِي	شِي	سِي
غِي	عِي	ظِي	طِي
لِـي	كِـي	قِي	فِي
يِـي	هِي	وِي	نِي	مِي

Note: The two dots underneath the Ya can be written or left out.

Practise reading the words with Madd Ya. Make sure you make it twice as long as a Haraka:

1	إِيـمَانَ	أَبِيهِ	يَتِيـمَ	ثِيـرَانُ	جِيدِهَا
رَحِيـمُ	أَخِيهِ	دِيـنِ	وَذِى	قَرِيبُ	تَجْزِى

مَوَٰزِينُهُ	عِبَـٰدِى	ظَـٰلِمِينَ	مُتَشَارِكِينَ	ءَامِنِينَ

Baby Madd Ya

Baby Ya Madd is not as common as Baby Alif Madd. It comes mostly at the end of a word following a "Ha" of the male singular 3rd person pronoun ("his...")

كُتُبِهِۦ	رَأْسِهِۦ	أَهْلِهِۦ	هَـٰذِهِۦ	بِهِۦ
وَجْـهِهِۦ	طَعَامِهِۦ	صَاحِبِهِۦ	غَيْبِهِۦ	رِزْقِهِۦ
إِلَـٰفِهِمْ	فَأَثَـرْنَ بِهِۦ		بِشِمَـالِهِۦ	بِيَمِينِهِۦ
فَوَسَطْنَ بِهِۦ		صَاحِبَتِهِۦ	وَزَوْجِهِۦ	وَرِسَـٰلَـٰتِهِۦ

Special writings for Madd Ya

If Ya is written without its dots, it looks exactly like the Alif Maksura. In this case, we only know that it is a Ya because it is preceded by Kasra.

يَـٰلَيْتَنِى	رَضِىَ	خَشِىَ	تَجْرِى
يُؤْتِى	لَفِـى	ذِى	عِبَـٰدِى

Practise reading: Alif or Ya?

أَعْلَى	إِلَىٰ	عَلَى	عِبَـٰدِى
أُخْرَىٰ	بُشْرَىٰ	نَسِىَ	يَرْضَىٰ
مُعْجِزِى	مُخْزِى	أَوْحَىٰ	شَىْءٍ

Practise everything we learned so far by reading these words from the Quran:

قُلْ هُوَ	أَيْدِيهِمْ	بِعِلْمِهِۦ	أَتَىٰكَ حَدِيثُ
إِذَا وَقَبَ	إِذَا حَسَدَ	سَيَصْلَىٰ	يُشْرِكُ بِهِۦ
لَكُمْ دِينُكُمْ	وَيَسْتَبْدِلْ	سَكِينَتَهُ	تَسْمَعُ فِيهَا
إِۦلَـٰفِهِمْ رِحْلَةَ	أَرَضِيتُمْ	شَيَـٰطِينِ	يُوَسْوِسُ فِى
أَوْ صَدِيقِكُمْ	وَإِذَا بَلَغَ	فِى ذَٰلِكَ	بَعْضُكُمْ عَلَى

Madd Waw

Waw (و) is the third and last letter that can prolong a Haraka. It is used to prolong the Dhamma. – If Waw is preceded by a Dhamma, we speak a long “oo” similar to the word “moon” in American English or “school” in British English or the sound “moo“ that a cow makes! You read the following letters double as long as a Letter with Dhamma:

ثُو	تُو	بُو	ءُو
خُو	حُو	جُو
زُو	رُو	ذُو	دُو
ضُو	صُو	شُو	سُو
غُو	عُو	ظُو	طُو
لُو	كُو	قُو	فُو
يُو	هُو	وُو	نُو	مُو

Practise reading the letters in all of their forms:

أَ	ءَا	إِ	إِى	أُ	أُو

Baby Madd Waw

Baby Waw Madd like Baby Ya Madd comes mostly at the end of a word following a “ha” of the male singular 3rd person pronoun (“his…”)

يَرَهُۥ	قَبْضَتُهُۥ	مَالَهُۥ	أَخْلَدَهُۥ	رَحْمَتُهُۥ
دَاوُۥدُ	رِزْقَهُۥ	فَأَكْرَمَهُۥ	كِتَـٰبُهُۥ	يَمِينُهُۥ
بَعَثَهُۥ	فَمَثَلُهُۥ	وَلَا يُوثِقُ وَثَاقَهُۥ		عَذَابَهُۥ

Keep practising everything we learned so far with these words from Surah Al-Kahf (18)

تَخْرُجُ مِنْ أَفْوَٰهِهِمْ	مَـٰكِثِينَ فِيهِ	كَفَرَ بَعْدَ ذَٰلِكَ

Exercise 18: Find and mark all the Mudud in Surah Al-Adiyat.

(Madd Alif in red, Madd Ya in yellow, Madd Waw in blue)

Exercise 19: What is the difference between a Short vowel (Harakah) and a Madd?

Exercise 20: Complete the table:

A Fatha is followed by Madd-Letter	A Kasra is followed by Madd-Letter	A Dhamma is followed by Madd-letter

Shadda

Shadda (ّـ) makes a consonant double. It is like reading a Sakin letter followed by a Mutaharrik letter, which are written as one letter only.

بْ+بَ = بَّ	بْ+بُ = بُّ	بْ+بِ = بِّ

Practise reading the Shadda:

أَءَّ	بَبَّ	تَتَّ	ثَثَّ
جَجَّ	حَحَّ	خَخَّ
دَدَّ	ذَذَّ	رَرَّ	زَزَّ
سَسَّ	شَشَّ	صَصَّ	ضَضَّ
طَطَّ	ظَظَّ	عَعَّ	غَغَّ
فَفَّ	قَقَّ	كَكَّ	لَلَّ
---	---	وَوَّ	هَهَّ	يَيَّ

Meem (م) and Nun (ن) are special when they wear a Shadda: They are read with Ghunna (Nasalization), and this extends their length to more than 2 Harakāt. Practise reading Meem and Nun with Shadda:

نَنَّ		مَمَّ
جِنَّةِ	كَأَنَّهُمْ	عَمَّ	حَمَّالَةَ
لَهُنَّ	ءَامَنَّا	ثُمَّ	مِمَّا
مِنَّا	أَنَّكَ	مُتِمُّ	مِمَّنْ

Practise reading the words with Shadda:

Tanween Fatha

Tanween means “Nunation”. It is the addition of the letter Nun after an indefinite form of a noun[3]. This nun is spoken but not written. We write two Fathas on top of each other instead.

Important: After Tanween Fatha there is mostly written an Alif after the Tanween. This Alif is not pronounced if we read the Tanween.

ثًا	تًا	بًا	ءًا
خًا	حًا	جًا
زًا	رًا	ذًا	دًا
ضًا	صًا	شًا	سًا
غًا	عًا	ظًا	طًا
لًا	كًا	قًا	فًا
يًا	هًا	وًا	نًا	مًا

[3] Tanween can normally only be found in nouns. But in the Quran there are 2 exceptions: There are two Verbs with Tanween in the Noble Quran. We call this a light, emphasized Nun: لَنَسْفَعًا (Surah Alaq, Verse 15) and لَيَكُونًا (Surah Yusuf, Verse 32)

Practise reading the words with Tanween Fatha:

1	شَيْـًٔا	قَرِيبًا	نَبَاتًا	إِنَـٰثًا	ثَـجَّاجًا
صَفْحًا	صَارِخًا	شِدَادًا	عَابِدًا	تَبْدِيرًا	مَفَازًا
لِبَاسًا	مَعَاشًا	نَاقِصًا	عَارِضًا	بِسَاطًا	وَاعِظًا
سَـمِيعًا	بَلَاغًا	أَلْفَافًا	دِهَاقًا	دَكًّا	قَلِيلًا
حَمِيـمًا	حَسَنًا	مَكْرُوهًا	هُزُوًا	دَاعِيًا

2	أَنْهَارًا	مِدْرَارًا	كُبَّارًا	كَفُورًا
وَلِيًّا	عَظِيـمًا	كَثِيرًا	أَمْرًا	يُسْرًا
إِيـمَـٰنًا	مُسْتَقِيـمًا	عَزِيزًا	أَلِيـمًا	صِرَاطًا
قَوْمًا	فَضْلًا	عَذَابًا	جَمِيعًا	فَوْزًا

1	لَهُۥ كُفُوًا	عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا	أَجْرًا إِلَّا
إِنَّهُۥ كَانَ تَوَّابًا		طَيْرًا أَبَابِيلَ	أَهْلَكْتُ مَالًا
أَلَمْ يَجِدْكَ يَتِيمًا		وَلِسَانًا	سَعِيرًا إِنَّهُۥ
مَفَازًا إِنَّا	سَرَابًا إِنَّ	أَلْفَافًا إِنَّ	مَسْرُورًا إِنَّهُۥ

Take care: If a word ends with a “Closed Ta”, then there is no Alif following the Tanween Fatha! If a word ends with Alif Hamza, there is also no further Alif written.

2	بُكْرَةً	لَاغِيَةً	مَرْضِيَّةً	رَاضِيَةً
مُنَشَّرَةً	عَلَقَةً	نُطْفَةً	نَضْرَةً	جَاشِيَةً
شَمْعَةً	حَسْرَةً	شَهْدَةً	شَفْعَةً	دَرَجَةً
وَشَجَرَةً	غُثَاءً أَحْوَىٰ		نَارًا حَامِيَةً

Tanween Dhamma

Tanween exists also for the other two Harakāt. Tanween Dhamma is like a Dhamma with an unwritten Nun Sakina, which is not written but spoken.

Important: After Tanween Dhamma there is no letter Waw written, unlike the Alif after Tanween Fatha.

ثٌ	تٌ	بٌ	ءٌ
خٌ	حٌ	جٌ
زٌ	رٌ	ذٌ	دٌ
ضٌ	صٌ	شٌ	سٌ
غٌ	عٌ	ظٌ	طٌ

Practise reading the words with Tanween Dhamma:

Tanween Kasra

Like Fatha and Dhamma, Tanween also exists as two Kasra. Like the others, it is spoken with an unwritten Nun Sakina.

Important: After Tanween Kasra there is no letter Ya written, unlike the Alif after Tanween Fatha.

Exercise 22: Find all Tanween Fatha (red), Tanween Kasra (yellow), and Tanween Dhamma (blue) in Surah Al-Balad and mark them with their colours.

Hamzatul Wasl

Hamzatul Wasl occurs so often in the Quran. It is written as an Alif without Hamza at the beginning of the word. On top, you find a little ص (for وَصْل). Hamzatul Wasl means “Connecting Alif”.

ٱ

If we read something before this Alif, then we drop it! We just skip the letter and go directly to the next one:

وَٱلْعَصْرِ	بِسْمِ ٱللَّهِ	وَٱمْرَأَتُهُۥ

Practise reading those words and drop the Connecting Hamza:

فَصَلِّ لِرَبِّكَ وَٱنْحَرْ	مَا ٱلْقَارِعَةُ	طَعَامِ ٱلْمِسْكِينِ
أَعْطَيْنَـٰكَ ٱلْـكَوْثَرَ	وَٱلْعَـٰدِيَـٰتِ	إِرَمَ ذَاتِ ٱلْعِمَادِ
فِى ٱلْأَخِرَةِ	لَيْلَةُ ٱلْقَدْرِ	مِمَّنِ ٱتَّبَعَ
وَٱدْخُلِى جَنَّتِى	وَٱسْتَغْنَىٰ	لَيَقُولَنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ

Hamzatul Wasl is only at the beginning of words. But sometimes a preposition is attached in front, so that it looks like one word:

كَٱلْمُهْلِ	فَٱدْخُلِى فِى عِبَـٰدِى	فَٱعْلَمْ أَنَّمَا

However, if we want to start reading at a Hamzatul Wasl, we need to give it a Harakah. On the next pages, you can learn which Harakah to put on the Hamzatul Wasl.

1. Hamzatul Wasl with Fatha
   This happens if we have Hamzatul Wasl in the Article ٱل. The Article has the meaning of “the” and stands in front of Nouns. In the article, Hamzatul Wasl is always read with Fatha!

ٱلْقَمَرُ	ٱلْبَيْتُ	ٱلْحَمْدُ
The moon	The house	The praise

Practise reading those words with the article and read the Hamzatul Wasl with Fatha:

ٱلْكِتَٰبِ	ٱلْقَارِعَةُ	ٱلْمَوْتُ
ٱلْأَرْضِ	ٱلْغَيْبِ	ٱلْجَنَّةَ
ٱلْكَٰفِرِينَ	ٱلْعَذَابَ	ٱلَّذِينَ

Keep in Mind: If something is written before the Article and you connect the words, you need to drop the Hamzatul Wasl. Read and practise which one is read and which one is not:

ٱلْجِبَالُ	وَٱلْقَمَرُ	عَلَّمَ ٱلْقُرْءَانَ
ٱلْمُجْرِمِينَ	عَلَّمَهُ ٱلْبَيَانَ	ٱلْمُتَّقِينَ
وَوَضَعَ ٱلْمِيزَانَ	لِتُبَشِّرَ بِهِ ٱلْمُتَّقِينَ

2. Hamzatul Wasl with Kasra
   It is read with Kasra when it's the first letter of an irregular Noun. There are only 7 irregular nouns in the Quran, so they are easy to keep in mind. All other nouns are in the form of ٱسْتِفْعَال, and that's why they are also easy to recognize.

ٱبْنٌ	ٱبْنَتٌ	ٱمْرُؤٌ
son	daughter	man

ٱمْرَأَتٌ	ٱسْمٌ
woman	name
ٱثْنَتَيْنِ	ٱثْنَيْنِ
two (female form)	two (male form)

ٱسْتِغْفَارٌ	ٱسْتِكْبَارٌ
seeking of refuge	pride

Hamzatul Wasl is also read with Kasra at the beginning of most verbs. If the third letter of the verb carries a Fatha or a Kasra, then we start reading the verb with Kasra:

ٱتَّقُوهُ	ٱسْتَغْفِرْ	ٱهْدِنَا
fear him!	seek refuge!	guide us!

Practise reading those words with Hamzatul Wasl with Kasra or with dropped Hamzatul Wasl:

ٱكْشِفْ	ٱسْتَغْفِرْهُ	ٱصْبِرْ
ٱذْهَبْ	وَٱرْحَمْ	ٱغْفِرْ
وَٱمْرَأَتُهُۥ حَمَّالَةَ ٱلْحَطَبِ		ٱسْتِكْبَارًا

3. Hamzatul Wasl with Dhamma
   When we find verbs starting with Hamzatul Wasl in which the third letter carries a Dhamma, then we start the verb with Dhamma:

ٱرْكُضْ	ٱعْبُدْ	ٱدْعُ
run!	serve/worship!	invoke/call!

Practise reading those words with Hamzatul Wasl with Dhamma or with dropped Hamzatul Wasl:

فَٱخْرُجْ	ٱبْتُلِيَ	ٱجْتُثَّتْ
ٱقْنُتِي	ٱتْلُ	وَٱدْخُلِي
ٱحْشُرْ	وَٱذْكُرْ	ٱسْتُحْفِظْ

Exception!!! The following words look like they are read with a Dhamma, but actually they are read with a Kasra. This is because, in the history of the Arabic language, the third letter had a Kasra. The good thing is: These 6 words occur only 7 times in the whole Quran, and we can just memorise them or mark them in the Mushaf. (Careful: the letter Alif at the end of these words is not read! This will be discussed later in the book!)

ٱمْضُواْ	ٱبْنُواْ	ٱقْضُواْ
Surah Hijr: 65	Surah Kahf: 21	Surah Yunus: 71

ٱئْتُواْ	ٱئْتُونِي	ٱمْشُواْ
Surah Taha: 64, Surah Jathiya: 25	Surah Ahqaf: 4	Surah Sad: 6

Heavy and light letters

At the beginning of the book, we have marked the heavy letters in the Alphabet. There is a sentence from a famous Tajweed poem for us to memorise the heavy letters. They are the letters in the sentence:

Heavy Letters:

خُصَّ ضَغْطٍ قِظْ

(Spend the summer in a narrow hut)

Read the letter pairs, making sure to raise the tongue for the heavy letters and lower it for the light letters:

سُورَةٌ	صُورَةٌ
تَابَ	طَابَ
كُلْ	قُلْ
ذَلِيلٌ	ظَلِيلٌ
تِينٌ	طِينٌ
ذَفِرَ	ظَفِرَ
سَرِيرٌ	صَرِيرٌ
كَلْبٌ	قَلْبٌ

Heavy and light Ra

Apart from those letters, there are other letters which are sometimes read heavy and sometimes light. The first of them is the letter Ra (ر)

ر

Letter Ra is Heavy or light – depending on whether Fatha, Dhamma or Kasra influences it[4]:

رِ ـِرْ	رَ ـَرْ	رُ ـُرْ
mostly light[5]	heavy

Read these words with heavy Ra:

رَحْمَةُ	ٱلْـكَافِرُونَ	مَرْيَمُ
قُرْءَانًا	رَبُّ	ٱلْغَفُورُ

Read these words with light Ra:

كَرِيمٌ	شَرِّ	صُدُورِ
وَٱسْتَغْفِرْهُ	فِرْعَوْنَ	رِجَالٌ

[4] These are simplified rules of heavy and light Ra. They have exceptions and can be discussed in more detail, which is not done in this book. To learn the rules of Ra in more detail we recommend the book “Abrar Quranreading Part 2”.
[5] There are 5 words in the Quran where the Ra after a Kasra is light. This happens when Ra sakin is preceeded by a Kasra but followed by a heavy letter.

Exercise or Homework Page

Exercise 24: Read these words and decide whether Ra is spoken light or heavy. Read again and mark the heavy Ra in a dark colour and the light Ra in a light colour.

ٱلْأَرْضُ	وَأَخْرَجَتِ	رَضِىَ
لَيْلَةُ ٱلْقَدْرِ	يَرَهُۥ	ذَرَّةٍ
وَٱذْكُرْ	وَٱنْحَرْ	قُرَيْشٍ
ٱلْقَارِعَةُ	لَفِى خُسْرٍ	بِٱلصَّبْرِ

ٱلْأَبْرَارَ يَشْرَبُونَ	يُفَجِّرُونَهَا تَفْجِيرًا	قَمْطَرِيرًا

Heavy and light Lam

The second letter that can be read light or heavy is the Lam in Allah's name (الله). Apart from this, all Lam in the Quran are light. The same rules apply for اللهُمَّ (oh Allah)

ٱللَّـه ٱللَّهُمَّ

Like with the Ra, also for the Lam in Allah's Name, we need to check which Harakah precedes it. After Fatha, Dhamma and when we start the Reading with Allah's name, we pronounce the Lam heavy. After a Kasra, we pronounce it light.

ٱللَّـه	ـُ ٱللَّـه	ـَ ٱللَّـه	ـِ ٱللَّـه
heavy			light

Important Note:

Allahs Name and the Form "Oh Allah" are written without Alif in the Quran, but spoken with prolonged Alif!

ٱللَّـه ← ٱللَّٰه	ٱللَّهُمَّ ← ٱللَّٰهُمَّ

Decide whether the Lam is heavy or light here:

قُلِ ٱللَّـهُمَّ	ٱللَّـهُ	إِنَّ ٱللَّـهَ	رَسُولُ ٱللَّـهِ
وَعَلَى ٱللَّـه	بِسْمِ ٱللَّـهِ	لِلَّهِ (= لِ ٱللَّـه)

Heavy and light Alif

The third and last letter, which can be read heavy or light, is the Madd Alif. This is very simple, and you surely did it right already: After a heavy letter, Alif is pronounced heavy, and after a light letter it is light.

light letter + ـَا	heavy letter + ـَا
light	heavy

Read the words and decide whether Alif is heavy or light and practise all we learned so far:

ٱلْـكَافِرُونَ	إِلَىٰ صِرَٰطِ ٱلْعَزِيزِ	كِتَٰبٌ أَنزَلْنَٰهُ
ضَاحِكَةٌ	أَءِذَا كُنَّا عِظَٰمًا	مِنْ عَذَابٍ
كِتَٰبَ ٱلْفُجَّارِ	لِرَبِّ ٱلْعَٰلَمِينَ	وَفِى ذَٰلِكُم
كِتَٰبَ ٱلْأَبْرَارِ	قَالَ أَسَٰطِيرُ	أَبْصَٰرُهَا خَاشِعَةٌ
إِلَىٰ طَعَامِهِۦ	يَتَغَامَزُونَ	وَمِزَاجُهُۥ
ٱلْحَيَوٰةَ ٱلدُّنْيَا	أَدْرَىٰكَ	مَا فِى ٱلسَّمَٰوَٰتِ

Lam Qamariyah (The Moon-Lam)

We have two kinds of Articles depending on the first letter of the word they are attached to. In some articles, the Lam is read normally and clearly (Idhhar). We call the Lam in this Article the Moon-Lam. The letters before which a Moon-Lam occurs we call “Moon-Letters”. We can keep them in mind with this sentence or by just practising with the letters until our tongue becomes familiar with them:

Moon-Letters:

اِبْغِ حَجَّكَ وَخَفْ عَقِيمَه

(Fulfil your pilgrimage and hope for its acceptance.)

Read the Articles preceding the Moon-letters. Make sure you speak the Lam clearly.

ٱلْإِيمَانُ	ٱلْبَابَ
ٱلْغَيْبَ	ٱلْحَجَّ
ٱلْجَنَّةِ	ٱلْكِتَابَ
ٱلْوَادِ	ٱلْخَيْرُ
ٱلْفِيلِ	ٱلْعَذَابَ
ٱلْقَمَرُ (The Moon)	ٱلْيَمِينَ
ٱلْمُلْكُ	ٱلْهُدَى

Lam Shamsiyah (The Sun-Lam)

Half of the Alphabet are Moon letters. The other 14 letters are Sun-letters. How perfectly balanced is the Arabic language! All the Sun letters are very close to the Articulation point of the Lam. That means that two very close letters are meeting each other. This is why they melt together. The Lam becomes hidden (Idgham), and the first letter of the word becomes doubled (Shadda) because the Lam melted into it. This sentence is to memorise the Sun letters:

Sun-Letters:

طِبْ ثُمَّ صِلْ رُحْمًا تَفُزْ ضِفْ ذَا نِعَمْ دَعْ سُوءَ ظَنٍّ زُرْ شَرِيفًا لِلْكَرَمْ

(Be good, then join the family relations and you will be successful. Be hospitable to the possessor of bounties. Leave the evil thought. Visit the illustrious for generosity.)

Read the Articles preceding the Sun letters. Make sure you don't read the Lam, but rather melt it into the first letter of the word.

ٱلطَّيْرُ	ٱلثَّمَنَ
ٱلصَّبْرَ	ٱلرَّبُّ
ٱلتَّوْبَةَ	ٱلضَّلَـٰلَ
ٱلذَّهَبِ	ٱلنَّـهَارِ
ٱلدَّارُ	ٱلسَّاعَةَ
ٱلظَّنَّ	ٱلزَّلْزَلَةُ
ٱلشَّمْسُ (The Sun)	ٱللَّطِيفُ

Practise reading the Articles and remember to melt the Sun-Lam and to read the Moon-Lam clearly.

ٱلرَّحۡمَٰنِ	ٱلۡبَصِيرُ	ٱلسَّعِيرِ	ٱلۡعَزِيزُ
ٱلۡمَصِيرُ	ٱلۡغَيۡظِ	ٱلسَّعِيرِ	ٱلۡغَيۡبِ
ٱلصُّدُورِ	ٱلۡخَبِيرُ	ٱلۡأَرۡضَ	ٱلۡكَٰفِرُونَ
ٱلسَّمۡعَ	ٱلۡوَعۡدُ	ٱلۡعِلۡمُ	ٱلَّذِينَ
ٱلۡقَلَمِ	ٱلۡمَفۡتُونُ	ٱلۡأَوَّلِينَ	ٱلۡخُرۡطُومِ
ٱلطَّاغِيَةِ	ٱلذِّكۡرَ	ٱلۡحَدِيثِ	ٱلسُّجُودِ
ٱلصُّورِ	ٱلۡجِبَالُ	ٱلۡمَلَكُ	ٱلۡقَاضِيَةَ

A Note: The preposition "لِ", which means "for" is "eating" the Hamzatul Wasl of the Article. We still have an article there, but the Hamzatul Wasl is not written anymore:

لِّلۡخَيۡرِ	لِلۡأَخِرَةِ	لِلرَّبِّ	لِلۡعَذَابِ

Exercise or Homework Page

Exercise 25: Practise reading these words. Take care to drop the Hamzatul Wasl if there is a word before that you connect with. Read again and mark every Sun-Lam in orange and every Moon-Lam in blue.

لَا يُؤۡمِنُ بِٱللَّهِ ٱلۡعَظِيمِ	ثُمَّ ٱلۡجَحِيمَ صَلُّوهُ
عَلَىٰ طَعَامِ ٱلۡمِسۡكِينِ	فَلَيۡسَ لَهُ ٱلۡيَوۡمَ
رَبِّ ٱلۡعَٰلَمِينَ	لَأَخَذۡنَا مِنۡهُ بِٱلۡيَمِينِ
لَحَسۡرَةٌ عَلَى ٱلۡكَٰفِرِينَ	لَحَقُّ ٱلۡيَقِينِ
بِٱلنَّفۡسِ ٱللَّوَّامَةِ	ٱلشَّمۡسُ وَٱلۡقَمَرُ
بَلۡ تُحِبُّونَ ٱلۡعَاجِلَةَ	إِذَا بَلَغَتِ ٱلتَّرَاقِيَ
مِنۡهُ ٱلزَّوۡجَيۡنِ	هَدَيۡنَٰهُ ٱلسَّبِيلَ
أَعۡتَدۡنَا لِلۡكَٰفِرِينَ	إِنَّ ٱلۡأَبۡرَارَ
يُحۡيِۦ ٱلۡمَوۡتَ	وَٱلۡتَفَّتِ ٱلسَّاقُ بِٱلسَّاقِ

Tip: The last (purple) example is not an article. It is a Verb which begins with Hamzatul Wasl and Lam. This is why the Ta, which is normally a sun-letter, has no Shadda here!

The rules of Nun and Tanween
Idhhar

When we find a Nun with Sukoon or a Tanween, they are not always pronounced like a “normal” Nun. In front of those letters, the Nun is spoken "normally” (Idhhar), because all of those letters are from the throat, which is far away from the articulation point of the Nun.

نْ ـً ـٍ ـٌ	+	ء ه ع ح غ خ

Practise reading these Nun and Tanween with Idhhar:

مَنْ ءَامَنَ	ٱلْأَنْهَارُ
إِنْ عَاقَبْتُمْ	وَٱنْحَرْ
فَسَيُنْغِضُونَ	إِنْ خِفْتُمْ
مُبَارَكًا أَيْنَ	سَلَـٰمٌ هِىَ
سَلَـٰمٌ عَلَيْهِمْ	غَفُورٌ حَلِيمٌ
مَاءً غَدَقًا	نِدَآءً خَفِيًّا

The rules of Nun and Tanween

Iqlab

The second rule of Nun and Tanween is the Iqlab. Iqlab means “changing”. It means that we exchange the Nun with a Meem every time a Ba follows. In order to remember the rule, the Tanween and Sukoon for Iqlab have a special writing in the Mushaf: They are written with a little Meem! When you read the Meem of Iqlab, it is read with Ghunna. That means we read it through the nose and make it long.

نْ	ـَـ	مـ	ـِـ	مـ	+	ب

Practise reading these Nun and Tanween with Iqlab:

فِي سُنۢبُلِهِۦٓ	يُنۢبِتُ
مِنۢ بَعۡدِ	لَيُنۢبَذَنَّ
مِنۢ بَقۡلِهَا	فَٱنۢبِذۡ
عَنۢ بَيِّنَةٖ	وَلَٰكِنۢ بَعُدَتۡ
مَّسَدِۭ بِسِمۡ	تَوَّابَۢا بِسِمۡ
رُوَيۡدَۢا بِسِمۡ	غُلۡفُۢ بِسِمۡ
بِثَمَنِۭ بَخۡسٖ	سَمِيعُۢ بَصِيرٞ

The rules of Nun and Tanween

Idgham

The third rule of Nun and Tanween is the Idgham. It means “Melting”. The nun becomes merged into the next letter. Sometimes the Nun is completely gone, and sometimes the Nasality (Ghunna) of the Nun will stay. Take care: Again, the Tanween is written differently, or the Nun stands without any sign if this rule occurs.

يَرْمَلُونَ	+	ـٌ ـٍ ـً	ن

When merging it into Meem or Nun, our Nun will be gone completely. Keep in mind to prolong the Ghunna of the Meeim and Nun Mushaddada:

كِتَبٌ مِّنْ	أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى	فَمِن مَّا	مِن مَّالٍ
شَيْـًٔا نُّكْرًا	حِطَّةٌ نَّغْفِرْ	إِن نَّفَعَتِ	لَن نَّدْخُلَهَا

When merging it into Lam or Ra, our Nun is also merged completely. Lam and Ra are now read with Shadda. Make sure you don’t give them any Ghunna.

بَقَرَةٌ لَّا	مَوْعِظَةٌ لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ	وَلَٰكِن لَّا	فَمَن لَّمْ
تَوَّابًا رَّحِيمًا	مَثَلًا رَّجُلَيْنِ	مِن رَّبِّهِمْ	مِن رِّزْقِ

When merging it into Ya or Waw, our Nun is not completely merged. We do not read a Nun anymore, but now Ya and Waw get Ghunna and are prolonged. Because Ya and Waw don’t have any Ghunna from themselves this comes from the Nun.

صَدَقَةٍ يَتْبَعُهَا	ءَامِنَّا يُجْبَىٰ	أَن يَعْفُونَ	مَن يَقُولُ
إِحْسَانًا وَذِى	غِشَٰوَةٌ وَلَهُمْ	مِن وَرَآئِكُمْ	مِن وَلِيٍّ وَلَا

Practise reading these Nun and Tanween with Idgham:

أَفَمَن يَمْشِى	ٱلْحَقُّ مِن رَّبِّهِمْ	عَدْلُ وَلَا هُمْ
شَفَٰعَةٌ وَلَا	حَنِيفًا وَمَا	حِلًّا لِّبَنِى
أَءِلَٰهٌ مَّعَ ٱللَّهِ	وَمَن يَتَوَلَّهُم	أَمَّن يُجِيبُ
غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ	أَحَدٍ مِّنْهُمْ	بِعَذَابٍ مِّنْ
قَوْمٌ يَفْرَقُونَ	كَثِيرَةٍ وَيَوْمَ	فَسَلَٰمٌ لَّكَ
وَمِن رِّبَاطِ	مِّن مَّالِ ٱللَّهِ	وَمِن رَّحْمَتِهِۦ
بِقَدَرٍ مَّعْلُومٍ	ثَمَرَةٍ رِّزْقًا	وَمَن لَّسْتُمْ
كَثِيرًا وَيَهْدِى	عَن نَّفْسٍ	مَّعْرُوفٌ وَمَغْفِرَةٌ
قَالَ بَلَىٰ وَلَٰكِن لِّيَطْمَئِنَّ قَلْبِ		خَيْرٌ مِّن
قَرِيبًا وَسَفَرًا	ءَايَٰتٍ مُّبَيِّنَٰتٍ وَمَثَلًا مِّنَ ٱلَّذِينَ

Note: Idgham never happens within one word – only between two words.

The rules of Nun and Tanween

Ikhfa

The fourth and last rule of Nun and Tanween is Ikhfa. Ikhfa means “hiding”. When pronouncing Nun in front of an Ikhfa letter, we do not touch the articulation point of the Nun with the tongue, but rather we go to the articulation point of the following letter. Note that the Tanween signs and the Nun without any Harakah for Ikhfa look the same as for Idgham.

Exercise 26: Practise reading the mixed rules of Nun and Tanween. Mark in different colours:

Idhhar yellow, Iqlab blue, Idgham green, Ikhfa red

إِنِّى خَٰلِقٌۢ بَشَرًا مِّن صَلْصَٰلٍ مِّنْ حَمَإٍ مَّسْنُونٍ

The rules of Meem Sakinah

Apart from the Nun, other letters can also be read in a special way or melted. One of them is the Meem. The rules of Meem are easier than the Rules of Nun Sakinah. Just for two letters, Meem is read in a special way.

Idhhar Shafawi	Ikhfa Shafawi	Idgham Shafawi
all other letters + م	ب + م	م + م

When a Meem Sakinah is followed by another Meem, they merge into each other (Idgham), and Meem Shadda is read with Ghunna. In the Mushaf, we find the first Meem empty when this rule occurs.

يَنصُرُكُم مِّنۢ	بَعۡضُكُم مِّنۡ	خَلَقَكُم مِّن	ءَاذَانِهِم مِّنَ
مِنكُم مَّن	أَصَبۡتُم مِّثۡلَيۡهَا	قُلُوبِهِم مَّرَضٌ	أَنفُسِهِم مَّا

When Meem Sakinah is followed by a Ba, we read it Ikhfa. That means the Meem is hidden into the Ba. We read the Meem hidden with Ghunna[6]. The Meem is standing empty, as in Idgham.

هُم بِمُؤۡمِنِينَ	يَعۡتَصِم بِٱللَّهِ	ذَٰلِكُم بَلَآءٌ	عَلَيۡهِم بِٱلۡإِثۡمِ
أَنفُسَكُم بِٱتِّخَاذِكُمُ	ءَاتَيۡنَٰكُم بِقُوَّةٍ	أَتُحَدِّثُونَهُم بِمَا

When a Meem Sakinah is followed by any other letter, we always read it “normal” and without Ghunna (Idhhar). The Meem in the Mushaf is written with a Sukoon when this rule occurs.

شِئۡتُمۡ رَغَدًا	يَمُدُّهُمۡ فِي	رَسُولَكُمۡ كَمَا	تَرَكَهُمۡ فِي
إِن كُنتُمۡ صَٰدِقِينَ	أَمۡ لَمۡ تُنذِرۡهُمۡ لَا	بِنُورِهِمۡ وَتَرَكَهُمۡ

[6] A difference in opinion is here whether the Ikhfa Shafawi is read with a small gap in between the lips or not. Ask your teacher about which one is better to read for you.

Other Idgham Letters

We learned that Meem, Nun, Tanween and the Lam of the Article can melt into other letters. Apart from those, other Letters can merge too. This happens when letters that are the same (Mutamathilayn) or very close in their Articulation point (Mutajanisayn) meet each other without Harakah in between.

It can happen, for example, with Lam before Ra (but not with Ra before Lam!), and it happens if the Lam is in a particle, like in:

بَل رَّفَعَهُ	بَل رَّبُّكُمْ	وَقُل رَّبِّ	تَغْفِرْ لِى

It can happen with two equal letters (Mutamathilayn)

أَلَمْ أَقُل لَّكُمْ	فَقُلْنَا ٱضْرِب بِّعَصَاك	رَبِحَت تِّجَٰرَتُهُمْ
يُدْرِككُّمُ ٱلْمَوْتُ	إِذ ذَّهَبَ	لَمْ تَسْتَطِع عَّلَيْه

It can happen with ط ت د or with ظ ث ذ.

أَثْقَلَت دَّعَوَا	إِذ ظَّلَمْتُمْ	لَقَدْ كِدتَّ	عَبَدتُّم
قَد تَّبَيَّنَ ٱلرُّشْدُ	قَالَت طَّآئِفَةٌ	يَلْهَث ذَّٰلِكَ

Careful: when the heavy letter melts into the light one, then the heaviness stays!

فَقَالَ أَحَطتُ بِمَا	لَئِنْ بَسَطتَ

Once in the Quran, the Ba is melting into the Meem:

ٱرْكَب مَّعَنَا (Surah Hud, 42)

Stopping

Whenever we pause our recitation to breathe, or at the end of the recitation, we need to drop the last Harakah.

Remember:

We never start with Sukoon. We never stop with Harakah!

ٱلنَّاسِ ⟵ ٱلنّاس	أَحَدٌ ⟵ أَحَد

Tip: Don't forget to apply Qalqala if you stop on a Qalqala letter!

When we stop on Ta Marbuta (ة), then the points are also dropped, and we read it as a ه.

ٱلْقَارِعَةُ ⟵ ٱلْقَارِعَه	جَنَّةٍ ⟵ جَنَّه

When we stop on a Tanween Fatha with Alif, then the Harakāt are dropped, and the Alif is read like a natural Madd (2 Harakāt).

أَفْوَاجًا ⟵ أَفْوَاجَا	هُدًى ⟵ هُدَى

When we stop on a letter which is followed by a Baby Madd, we drop the Madd.

إِنَّهُۥ ⟵ إِنَّه	بِهِۦ ⟵ بِه

Read those ayat and stop correctly at the end:

ٱللَّهُ ٱلصَّمَدُ	وَرَأَيْتَ ٱلنَّاسَ يَدْخُلُونَ فِي دِينِ ٱللَّهِ أَفْوَاجَا
فِيهَا كُتُبٌ قَيِّمَةٌ	سَيَصْلَىٰ نَارًا ذَاتَ لَهَبٍ

Letters above each other

Sometimes we find two letters above each other in the Quran. This can have different reasons. Normally, it is written by the scholars to show us that this word is pronounced differently from how it is written. If you follow this general rule, then you will always read it right[7]:

If you find two letters over each other, read the one on top!

Sometimes you find Alif over a letter, to show that Alif is read here.

ٱلصَّلَوٰةَ	ٱلزَّكَوٰة	بُشۡرَىٰكُم	ٱلتَّوۡرَىٰة

Sometimes you find Sin under or over Sad.

هُمُ ٱلۡمُصَيۡطِرُونَ	وَيَبۡصُۜطُ	بَصۜۡطَةَ

It can also happen that the letter Nun is added in a word – above the word.

نُۨجِ ٱلۡمُؤۡمِنِينَ

Read those Ayat. Remember to stop without Harakah at the End.

وَٱللَّهُ يَقۡبِضُ وَيَبۡصُۜطُ وَإِلَيۡهِ تُرۡجَعُونَ	وَكَذَٰلِكَ نُۨجِ ٱلۡمُؤۡمِنِينَ
ٱلصَّلَوٰةَ وَءَاتُواْ ٱلزَّكَوٰة	وَزَادَكُمۡ فِي ٱلۡخَلۡقِ بَصۜۡطَةَ
بُشۡرَىٰكُمُ ٱلۡيَوۡمَ جَنَّٰتٞ	أَمۡ هُمُ ٱلۡمُصَيۡطِرُونَ

[7] There can be cases in which the bottom letter may also be read. This can be learned in a more detailed Tajweed-course.

Sifr (round and oval zero)

There are two types of Zero in the Quran.

The first one is the Round Zero (Sifr Mustadir). It always deletes the letter which is under it. These letters are written but not spoken; the scholars showed us this by putting the Sifr Mustadir on top:

Sifr Mustadir ٱلصِّفْرُ ٱلْمُسْتَدِير	ۡ	always deletes the letter

وَأَقِيمُواْ	بِأَيۡيدٍ	نَّبَإِىۡ ٱلۡمُرۡسَلِين	أُوْلُواْ ٱلۡأَلۡبَٰبِ

The second one is the Oval Zero or Standing Zero (Sifr Mustatil). It is only found on the letter Alif and only at the end of a word. When the Alif carries a Sifr Mustatil, then we read the Alif when stopping on this word, but we drop the letter when continuing to read and joining it with the next word:

Sifr Mustatil ٱلصِّفْرُ ٱلْمُسْتَطِيل	ٱ	deletes the letter when joining it to the next word

قَالَ أَنَاْ أُحۡيِۦ وَأُمِيتُ	لَـٰكِنَّاْ هُوَ	فَأَضَلُّونَا ٱلسَّبِيلَاْ

Read these Ayat. Do you need to read the letter with Sifr or not?

وَلَآ أَنَاْ عَابِدُ مَّا عَبَدتُّمۡ	أَطَعۡنَا ٱللَّهَ وَأَطَعۡنَا ٱلرَّسُولَاْ
كَانَتۡ قَوَارِيرَاْ	قَوَارِيرَاْ مِن فِضَّةٍ
مِن فِرۡعَوۡنَ وَمَلَإِيۡهِمۡ	لَبِثۡتَ مِاْئَةَ عَامٍ

Read these Ayat and practise everything we learned so far.

يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصْدُرُ ٱلنَّاسُ أَشْتَاتًا لِّيُرَوْاْ أَعْمَـٰلَهُمْ
إِنَّ ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُواْ وَعَمِلُواْ ٱلصَّـٰلِحَـٰتِ أُوْلَـٰٓئِكَ هُمْ خَيْرُ ٱلْبَرِيَّةِ
لَيْلَةُ ٱلْقَدْرِ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ أَلْفِ شَهْرٍ
ٱقْرَأْ بِٱسْمِ رَبِّكَ ٱلَّذِى خَلَقَ
أَلَيْسَ ٱللَّهُ بِأَحْكَمِ ٱلْحَـٰكِمِينَ
وَلَلْأَخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ لَّكَ مِنَ ٱلْأُولَىٰ
فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَعَقَرُوهَا فَدَمْدَمَ عَلَيْهِمْ رَبُّهُم بِذَنۢبِهِمْ فَسَوَّىٰهَا
ثُمَّ كَانَ مِنَ ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُواْ وَتَوَاصَوْاْ بِٱلصَّبْرِ وَتَوَاصَوْاْ بِٱلْمَرْحَمَةِ
فَصَبَّ عَلَيْهِمْ رَبُّكَ سَوْطَ عَذَابٍ
أَفَلَا يَنظُرُونَ إِلَى ٱلْإِبِلِ كَيْفَ خُلِقَتْ
وَإِذَا قُرِئَ عَلَيْهِمُ ٱلْقُرْءَانُ لَا يَسْجُدُونَ

Longer Mudud

We learned already in the Beginning that a natural Madd has 2 Harakāt. There are many Mudud in the Quran which we make longer than this. Mostly (but not always), they are marked by a wave over the Madd.

Please note that most of the Mudud can be read with different lengths, but here we want to keep it as simple as possible to make your reading correct.

Mudud that you should read with 4 Harakāt[8]:

Madd Arid Li-s-Sukoon مَدّ عَارِض لِلسُّكُونِ	ٱلرَّحِيم	If a Madd is before the letter on which you stop.

A similar Madd (Madd Leen) happens if the letter before the last letter is a Waw or Ya sakinah, preceded by Fatha, like in the last two examples of the table.

Read these words with Arid Li-s-Sukoon (or Madd Leen):

هُدًى لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ	يُنفِقُونَ	يَوْمِ ٱلدِّينِ	ٱلْعَٰلَمِينَ
مِنْ خَوْفٍ	قُرَيْشٍ	هُمْ يُوقِنُونَ	ٱلرَّحْمَٰنُ

Madd Muttasil and Madd Munfasil مَدّ مُتَّصِل مَدّ مُنْفَصِل	جَآءَ	A letter Hamza is following after your Madd. (Muttasil: Madd and Hamza are in the same word / Munfasil: Madd and Hamza are in separated words)

Read these words with Madd Muttasil and Madd Munfasil (or Madd Silah Kubra, which is very similar):

ٱلَّذِىٓ أَطْعَمَهُم	ٱلشِّتَآءِ	وَلَآ أَنتُمْ	يَٰٓأَيُّهَا
فِيهَآ أَبَدًا	مَا جَآءَتْهُمُ	وَمَآ أَدْرَىٰكَ	مَالَهُۥٓ أَخْلَدَهُۥ

[8] Please note that other lengths are possible for these Mudud. 4 Harakāt are just to simplify it and get it right!

Mudud that you should read with 6 Harakāt:

Madd Lazim مَدّ لَازِم	ٱلْحَآقَّةُ	After your Madd is a Sukoon or Shadda.

Read these words with Madd Lazim:

وَلَا ٱلضَّآلِّينَ	ءَآلْـَٰٔنَ	أَتُحَـٰٓجُّوٓنِّى	ٱلصَّآخَّة

Read those words. Take care with how long you read the Mudud. Remember to stop on Sukoon.

عَمَّ يَتَسَآءَلُونَ	مَآءَ ثَجَّاجَا
وَفُتِحَتِ ٱلسَّمَآءُ	لِّلطَّـٰغِينَ مَـَٔابَا
جَزَآءَ وِفَاقًا	بِـَٔايَـٰتِنَا كِذَّابَا
حَدَآئِقَ وَأَعْنَـٰبَا	عَطَآءً حِسَابَا
ٱلرُّوحُ وَٱلْمَلَـٰٓئِكَةُ	إِنَّآ أَنذَرْنَـٰكُمْ
فَإِذَا جَآءَتِ ٱلطَّآمَّةُ	وَءَاثَرَ ٱلْحَيَوٰةَ
لَمْ يَلْبَثُوٓاْ إِلَّا عَشِيَّةً	لَآ أُقْسِمُ بِيَوْمِ ٱلْقِيَـٰمَةِ

Huruf Muqataa

At the beginning of some Surahs, we find Huruf Al-Muqataa (separated letters) ٱلْحُرُوفُ ٱلْمُقَطَّعَة

Huruf Al-Muqataa are read separately with the name of the letter.

We need to go back to page 7 of this book. There are the letters with their names. This is how we speak the Huruf Al-Muqataa. Take care – if the wave is over the letter, we need to prolong the Madd in the letter to 6 counts (Madd Lazim)!

الٓمٓ	الٓمٓصٓ	كٓهيعٓصٓ	يٰسٓ

أَلِفْ لَآمْ ميمْ

Read these Ayat and practise everything we learned so far.

الٓمٓ ﴿١﴾ ذَٰلِكَ ٱلْكِتَٰبُ لَا رَيْبَ

الٓمٓصٓ ﴿١﴾ كِتَٰبٌ أُنزِلَ إِلَيْكَ فَلَا يَكُن فِى صَدْرِكَ حَرَجٌ مِّنْهُ

طه ﴿١﴾ مَآ أَنزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ ٱلْقُرْءَانَ لِتَشْقَىٰٓ ﴿٢﴾

طسٓمٓ ﴿١﴾ تِلْكَ ءَايَٰتُ ٱلْكِتَٰبِ ٱلْمُبِينِ ﴿٢﴾

حمٓ ﴿١﴾ عٓسٓقٓ ﴿٢﴾ كَذَٰلِكَ يُوحِىٓ إِلَيْكَ وَإِلَى ٱلَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِكَ

Stopping Signs

Sometimes you find over the text in your mushaf several signs which show you where you can stop, cannot stop or where you must stop. They help you, especially in longer Ayat, to divide the Ayah and breathe. Here is what they mean:

	(Sila) You can stop but it is better to go on reading.
	(Qila) You can go on reading but it is better to stop.
	(Jeem) You can stop or go on reading, both are fine.
	(Meem) You must stop here.
	(Lam-Alif) You should not stop here and you should not read from here.
	(Sakt) Make a short break without breathing.
	You find them after each other. You need to stop on one of them.
	(Flower) It shows the end of a Rub´ (ربع) (⅛ of a Juz). You find this sign every 2½ pages)

Other special signs

These signs occur only once in the Medina-Print of the Quran:

ءَأَعْجَمِيٌّ	(Fussilat: 44) Tasheel: Reading of Hamza between Alif and Hamza.
لَا تَأْمَنَّا	(Yusuf: 11) Ishmam: Rounding of the Lips to a Dhamma without pronouncing a Dhamma.
مَجْرٖىٰهَا	(Hud: 41) Imalah: Speaking the Harakah of the Ra between Fatha and Kasra.

Read these Ayat and practise everything we learned so far.

نٓۚ وَٱلْقَلَمِ وَمَا يَسْطُرُونَ
ٱلَّذِى خَلَقَ سَبْعَ سَمَٰوَٰتٍ طِبَاقًاۖ مَّا تَرَىٰ فِى خَلْقِ ٱلرَّحْمَٰنِ مِن تَفَٰوُتٍۖ
وَأَسِرُّواْ قَوْلَكُمْ أَوِ ٱجْهَرُواْ بِهِۦٓۖ إِنَّهُۥ عَلِيمُۢ بِذَاتِ ٱلصُّدُورِ
أَمْ أَمِنتُم مَّن فِى ٱلسَّمَآءِ أَن يُرْسِلَ عَلَيْكُمْ حَاصِبًاۖ
وَقِيلَ مَنْۜ رَاقٍ
۞إِنَّ ٱلْإِنسَٰنَ خُلِقَ هَلُوعًا

Iltiqa As-Sakinayn

The meeting of two Sukoon.

If in the Arabic language two Sukoon meet each other at the border of two words, we need to find a way to avoid it.

The following rules are simplified, and only those which affect the reading will be discussed here.

فِي ٱلْأَرْضِ	أَحَدٌ ٱللَّهُ
Sukoon + Madd	Sukoon + Tanween
We drop the Madd	We add a Kasra after our Tanween
فِلْأَرْضِ	أَحَدِ ٱللَّهُ

Read these Ayat and practise what we learned so far.

ٱهْدِنَا ٱلصِّرَٰطَ ٱلْمُسْتَقِيمَ
وَلَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمُ ٱلَّذِينَ ٱعْتَدَوْا۟ مِنكُمْ فِى ٱلسَّبْتِ فَقُلْنَا لَهُمْ
فَمَا جَزَآءُ مَن يَفْعَلُ ذَٰلِكَ مِنكُمْ إِلَّا خِزْىٌ فِى ٱلْحَيَوٰةِ ٱلدُّنْيَا ۖ
سَآءَ مَثَلًا ٱلْقَوْمُ ٱلَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا۟ بِـَٔايَٰتِنَا وَأَنفُسَهُمْ كَانُوا۟ يَظْلِمُونَ
وَإِذْ قَالَتْ أُمَّةٌ مِّنْهُمْ لِمَ تَعِظُونَ قَوْمًا ٱللَّهُ مُهْلِكُهُمْ أَوْ مُعَذِّبُهُمْ عَذَابًا
فَيَقُولُونَ مَاذَآ أَرَادَ ٱللَّهُ بِهَٰذَا مَثَلًا ۘ يُضِلُّ بِهِۦ كَثِيرًا

Exercise or Homework Page

Exercise 27: Revise the stopping signs: What do they mean? Use a Quran Mushaf to find examples for every sign and note on which page you found it.

Sign	Name and explanation	Example Quran page
صلے	(Sila) You can stop but it is better to go on reading.	٢
قلے	(Qila) _____.
ج	(Jeem) _____.
م	(Meem) _____.
لا	(Lam-Alif) _____.
س	(Sakt) _____.
	_____.
	(Flower) _____.

Read the Surahs:

With the permission of Allah, this is the End of this book.

Congratulations! If you practised everything well, you should be able to read the Quran (almost) without mistakes now ☺!

Abrar Quran Reading is an easy and modern way to learn reciting the Book of Allah. Most words and examples of this book are from the Mushaf in the common Medina-Print in Uthmani-Script in the Reading style Hafs an Asim over the way of Ash-Shatibiyah.

This book is teaching the basic skills and rules to learn reading the Quran correctly with Tajweed step by step. Worksheets at the end of each chapter help you consolidate the learning content. We highly recommend studying this book with an experienced teacher.

The Prophet Mohammed (Peace be upon him) said:
"The best among you are those who learn the Quran and teach it."
(Sahih Al-Bukhari)
